With reference to the Moozoor Order N^o 376 of the 9th Instant, enclosing a letter from the Magistrate of Chittoor, and directing me to send a similar statement of the Mysore Palligars, I beg to report as follows:-

The Palligars in the Mysore Country are not enjoying
in the Chittoor District-

The Palligars of Munjerabad, Chittedroog, and Chota Balasoor &c are in receipt of allowance, and the rest Palligars of Nuggur, Soongul &c are not in receipt of salaries from the Circar, and their names are not entered in the accounts of Hoosoor order, is herewith returned.

Signed Thomas Kinn
Buckley.

The humble Representation of ~~the~~ Lutchomemal and Parvatomal the Wives of Ahinna Narayanappa a Paukar of Bellagood,

Most respectfully Sheweth -

Your poor Representatives most Submissively beseech your honor to accept any case with these lines -

That your Representatives husband has been obtained the Salary of 90 Pagodas from his highness the Rajah when after his decease the Kircar People had been curtailed the said Salary of 30 Pagodas and who ordered to Buckshee Dondrow as to paying at 60 Pagodas for a month for your Representatives - at that time the Named Rungappa a Brother of your Rep^{ts} husband who requested your Rep^{ts} - as he can be answerable for the creditors of your Rep^{ts} husband and who gave a Note of hand so that he can be support your Rep^{ts} and who had obtained the said Wages at 90 Pagodas for every month - but who was allowing Only 15 Pagodas to Your Rep^{ts} for a Month - and after few Months who stoped a bout 40 Months wages upon whose deceit Your Rep^{ts} have been added to H. Highness's Letter, Honor and J. A. Lawmajor and had the strict order to the Buckshie of bundachar butchary to take proper Enquire and to be paid as before but the said Brother had a great hope of getting a bad reck - to your Rep^{ts} and who delivered the Salary as 13½ Pagodas a Month to the said butchary -

Therefore your poor and helpless - Representators most Earnestly intreats your bhantat kind favour to getting a strict order as your Rep^{ts} can get their wages according to their account - Because who are much distressed for their Maintenance

For which act of charity Your honors Rep^{ts} as in full Duty bound Shall Ever Pray -
